GPX Realty completes $140,000 in capital improvement program

LANSDALE, PA — GPX Realty Partners, L.P. announced the completion of a $140,000 capital improvement program at Lansdale Village Apartments, a 41-unit apt. complex.

“The completion of this capital improvement program adds even more value to Lansdale Village Apartments, which is already a strategic asset due to the property’s terrific location,” says Joseph Conwell, managing director of GPX Realty Partners. “These exterior renovations have completely changed the look and feel of this apartment complex and improved the overall safety of the property”. ■
